

Mardi Gras weekend activities planned

Preparations for the Mardi Gras dance on Saturday, Feb. 24 have been completed. Arrangements for the afternoon have been made with the proprietors of the local bowling alley and skating rink, and for the evening with Bobby Christian and his band.

Four lanes at the bowling alley have been reserved for Puma bowlers and their dates. The skating rink has also been reserved and its use is included in the price of the dance ticket. There will also be a movie on campus Saturday afternoon.

Bobby Christian and his orchestra, who played their first college engagement at St. Joe's in 1956, have recently been voted the no. 1 College Dance and Concert attraction in mid-western colleges and universities.

Christian, who does all the arrangements for the 16 piece group, has been called the world's greatest percussionist. During the course of a typical evening he plays the vibraharp, xylophone, tympani, drums, bongos and piano.

Added to the planned events are the high school sectional basketball games, which will be in progress in the field-house over the weekend.

Four days prior to the dance the Student Council will issue a bulletin with the names of all those who have not turned in drinking permits or their dates' residence. These students will have to turn in permits or addresses before they will be allowed to attend the dance.

Goedert passes examination for foreign service

Patrick J. Goedert, a senior political science major from River Forest, Ill., has become the first St. Joseph's college student to pass the foreign officers examination. He took the exam Dec. 9 in Chicago.

Goedert must now undergo an oral exam, interview and security check. If he succeeds in these areas, he will qualify for appointment as foreign service officer, class 8, and will spend two years in Washington D. C. at the State department and at the Foreign Service Institute at Georgetown university. He will then be ready for service in the career diplomatic corps.

The foreign service officers exam lasted from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. and covered all areas of knowledge. A grade in the 70th percentile or better is passing.

Goedert spent his junior year abroad at the University of Munich in Germany. This year he was one of 22 St. Joseph seniors to be elected to "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

A 1958 graduate of Fenwick high school in Oak Park, Ill., Goedert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Goedert, 522 William, River Forest, Ill.

Enrollment drops to 1004 students

There are 1004 students enrolled in St. Joseph's college this semester, according to figures supplied by the office of the Registrar. This figure is a drop of 69 from last semester.

Of the 1004 students, 938 are returning, 40 are new and 26 are re-entering.

A total of 135 students from last semester have left St. Joseph's. Nineteen graduated from the local campus, 36 were dismissed for inferior scholarship and 20 left for financial reasons. The remaining 60 left for a variety of personal reasons.

Re-schedule retreats for Lenten dates

Following is the schedule of this year's retreats. The dates of the retreats have been changed from those in the catalogue to concur with Lent. The retreatmaster will be announced later.

Senior retreat is Mar. 9-11.

Freshman retreat is Apr. 6-8.

Gov. Welsh graduation speaker

By LEONARD PALICKI

Governor Matthew E. Welsh of Indiana has accepted the invitation of Very Reverend Raphael H. Gross, C.P.P.S., president of St. Joseph's college, to deliver the baccalaureate address to the senior class of 1962.

Governor Welsh will also receive the honorary Doctor of Laws degree at the exercises, which will take place on Sunday, June 3.

Two other honorary degrees will be awarded at the June commencement. The recipients will be Circuit Judge Moses Leopold of Rensselaer, and Mr. Raymond Ziegman, vice president of the Quality Castings Co., Orrville, Ohio. Mr. Ziegman is a member of the Board of Lay Trustees.

A native of Detroit, Michigan, Governor Welsh practiced law in Vincennes, Ind. after being admitted to the Indiana Bar association in 1937.

He received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1934, attended Indiana university, and received the Doctor of Law degree from the University of Chicago in 1937.

After representing Knox county in the Indiana General Assembly from 1941-43 and serving as a U.S. District Attorney in 1950-51, he was elected state Senator of Knox and Davies counties in 1955.

1960 saw Mr. Welsh elected chief executive of Indiana. He resides in Vincennes and is treasurer on the Board of Trustees of Vincennes university.

Further details of the Governor's appearance here will appear in later issues of Stuff.

European summer employment offered by American organization

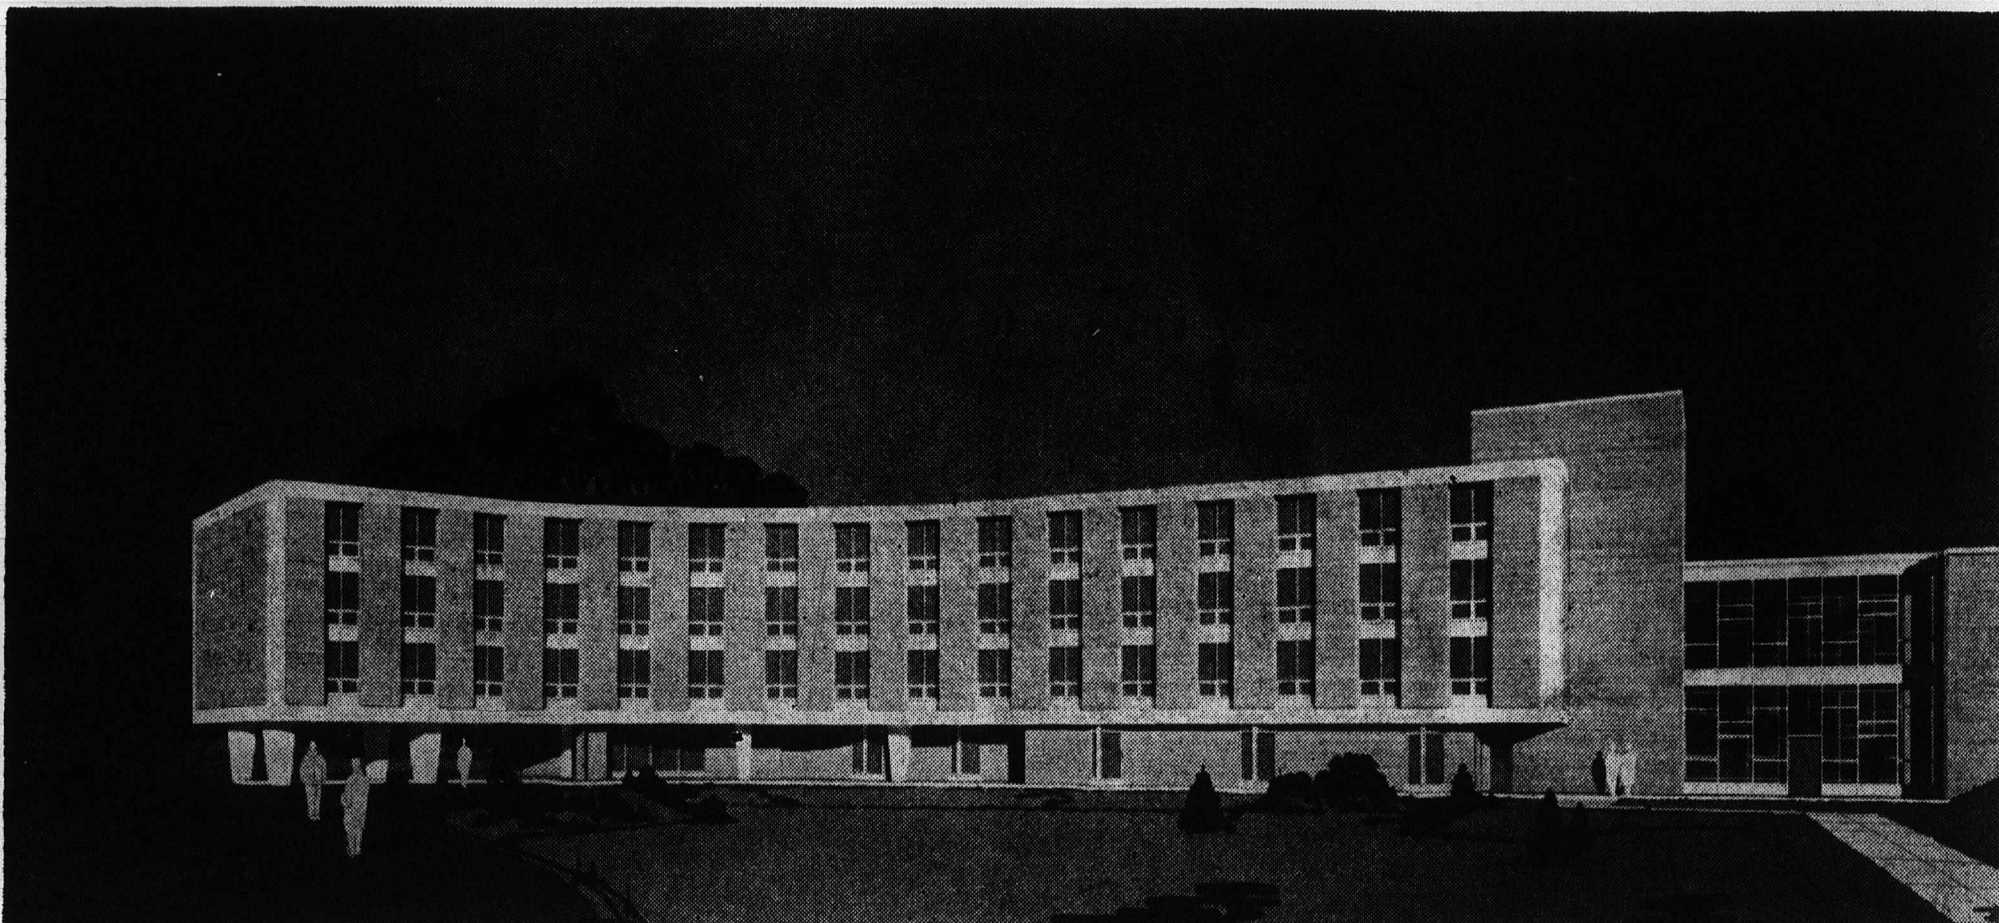

ASIS, (American Student Information Service) an American run organization, located in Luxembourg, has just announced that it still has 1,500 summer jobs left for U.S. college students who would like to spend the summer working in Europe.

Available jobs include resort work, farm work, hospital work, construction work, child-care and camp counseling positions and other varied types of employment opportunities, all of which pay the standard wage of the country in which they are located. Wages range from room and board only in Spain to $150 a month for the highest paid positions in west Germany.

This is an opportunity not only to visit Europe, but to 'live it,' with the added attraction of being able to earn back some of the travel expenses.

Future faculty residence will house all resident priests and brothers

This is the architect's drawing of the new faculty residence hall currently under construction south of the faculty dining hall. The new residence will free considerable space in the administration building for other uses.

Students to be congratulated for rabid support of cagers

If ever a student body deserved recognition for its sincere and undaunted loyalty, it is the student body of this college. Instances of greater spirit than that shown here during the home basketball season just completed would be nearly impossible to find.

The varsity has won seven games, three during its nine-game home schedule. They have won only one conference game, and that on the road. They did not win at home after Jan. 6. But still at every home game the student cheering section has been jammed with rabid fans totally unwilling to accept the possibility of defeat.

The cheering at the first two games was excellent. The varsity won their first home game easily from Chicago Teachers, and lost a painful overtime contest to Indiana State on a last second shot. Then came the game which set the precedent for the rest of the season.

On Dec. 14 St. Joe played Anderson, and with 12 minutes remaining Anderson led by 16 points. During a time-out the band struck up "The Saints." When play resumed the rhythmic, deafening chant persisted; and it continued unabated until the end of the game. When it was over St. Joe had won by six points—an amazing comeback inspired by amazing spirit.

The next home game was an easy win over Marian. Then the Joemen were crushed by Ball State here on Jan. 13. But, three days later, the undaunted hordes returned with their chant, and cheered St. Joe to near victory over powerful Butler. Supported by tremendous cheering the Pumas dogged the highly-favored Bulldogs until the final minutes of the game.

The next two home games would have soured the faith of all but the most loyal of fans. Against Evansville St. Joe led by 12 at the half, but lost by 10. Against DePauw St. Joe led by 17 in the second half, but lost in heartbreaking double overtime. Yet, the magic of "The Saints" made close games out of two contests which figured to be routs; the wild cheering never ceased until after the final buzzer.

After two victories on the road the Pumas returned for Tuesday's home finale against Valpo. And at this game the enthusiasm built up throughout the season reached its frenzied peak. From start to finish the south stands rocked to the chanting and clapping of a tremendously loyal student body. Again the Pumas lost, but, as throughout the season, they were spurred by a very real spirit which seemed at times to serve as a sixth man on the floor. The hopeful, sincere support was every bit as real as the howling wind outside the fieldhouse, and nearly as powerful.

Now only three road games remain on the schedule; the home season is completed, and its success in victories was only fair. But to all who attended the Anderson game, or the games with Butler, or Evansville, or DePauw or Valpo, this season will long be remembered. For the joy of victory was heightened and the disappointment of defeat tempered by the heartfelt support which we gave in common to our team. It is unfortunate that victory was not more frequent. But our efforts have brought us another benefit certainly at least as valuable as victory—a realization of the wonders which can be wrought through unified effort. May we never forget this lesson.

'Measure' called fine quality work

By MIKE DOYLE

Paging through the new issue of Measure brought to memory an old story which came from high school days. It concerned a grazing cow. An observer pointed out how "the cow chewed the grass and eschewed the thistles." Even though the lesson of this parable is lost to me, still the story came to mind. Why?

The reason is that the latest issue of Measure is one in which most "intellectual thistles" have been neatly eschewed. The work presented is beyond any serious reproach.

The format of the journal is good. The change in the cover from a hard gloss to a straight paper, and the arrangement and set-up, are pleasing; and the art work, although typical college journal type art work, is also pleasurable.

The stories presented are meaningful, up-to-date, entertaining, and thought provoking. "The Master is Dead" is certainly a kind, timely epitaph to the great humorist, James Thurber. "Monkeyshines," although somewhat hazy in ending, is entertaining, and will give any pseudo-intellectuals on campus a good deal to think about. "The River," on the verge of being trite, portrays a young man escaping from Communism—a regularly occurring event these days. "New Land" speaks for itself. (At least I'm not going to try to explain it.)

In spite of its high quality, Measure is far from perfect. It does have its faults, and the biggest and most noticeable of these is its lack of quantity. While most people will contend that quality is better than quantity, we like to refer to an old Scottish proverb which though a little strong is certainly true in part. That is, "Quality, without quantity is little thought of."

Measure, supposedly, is the literary journal of the college, and it is hard to believe that the writings of five students comprise the whole of the literary efforts at St. Joseph's during a semester. This, however, is not the fault of Measure staff, which has worked hard with the material it has received, but rather it is due to intellectual apathy, a fault which can be placed directly upon the student body itself.

In general then, Measure looks like what it is—a literary journal carefully assembled by a few interested students. It is well worth the time spent in reading it.

Church historian to speak on Reformation here March 13

Monsignor Phillip Hughes, noted educator and Church historian, will lecture here at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 13, on "Was the Reformation Inevitable?" and later in the evening will preside over a discussion of his book, A Popular History of the Reformation.

Father Hughes is an English priest who was graduated from the Seminary of Leeds in 1920. During the following year he studied at Louvain, Belgium where he became a member of the Seminar Historique, and received his Licentiate in Moral Sciences and History. He also holds honorary degrees from Louvain, Villanova, and a number of American Universities. He spent the next two years doing research work in Rome under the direction of his Eminence Cardinal Gasquet, O.S.B., Vatican Archivist and author of many well known works in English ecclesiastical history. After this he held the position of Lecturer at the College of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minnesota.

During the years 1934 through 1943 he was Archivist of Westminster. It was at this time that he wrote Pope Pius XI, The Faith in Practice and a three volume history, The Reformation in England.

Since 1955 he has been a resident Professor of Reformation History at Notre Dame University. Here in 1957 he wrote A Popular History of the Reformation, the book he will discuss on the thirteenth of March. According to Catholic World, "The book is just what the title describes, a swiftly moving, easily read story of how that upheaval which so changed the complexion of mankind came to pass. Fascinating, too, are his pen portraits of the great actors of the drama: Luther, Erasmus, Calvin.

The London Times states that the book is fitted, by both scholarship and Wisdom, to challenge its readers . . . the style is always lively and sometimes arresting. However, Father Hughes fails to explain the what it was men found in the new versions of Christianity that they failed to find in the traditional Roman version.

Perhaps Monsignor Hughes will answer this question on Tuesday, March 13, when he lectures here on "Was the Reformation Inevitable?" Certainly if he does not cover the problem in his lecture he will have to do so in the discussion of his book, A Popular History of the Reformation, later in the evening.

Council Critique

SC becoming more representative force for student body

By JOE MURRAY

After five months of varying success, the Student Council has adopted a more positive attitude for the second semester. This new approach was exemplified at the Council meeting of Feb. 6.

The Council finally seems to have realized that it is a representative force of the student body, and not a complacent "tool" of the administration. At last, firm action was taken in regards to student complaints and all-night lights for underclassmen. The latter problem was discussed at a closed meeting held on Feb. 12. The Council is to be commended for its effective gathering of student complaints. Though many students felt the Council should have visited each hall personally, I feel that those students who had legitimate complaints would and did make the long jaunt to Bennett hall or the auditorium.

Now, it is up to the Council to compile these complaints and bring them to the attention of the proper authorities. They must show the administration that problems do exist here at St. Joseph's; and it is the Council's duty to see that the "upper echelon" takes action on these complaints.

After much delay, the question of all-night lights for freshmen and sophomores appears to be nearing a solution. It is almost a certainty that the underclassmen will receive lights upon formulation and acceptance of rules concerning their use. However, I don't think the rules should be so stringent that they place a "noose" around the neck of each underclassman.

All concerned should realize that this privilege is going to be abused by some students, but punishment should be meted out to the individual . . . and not to the class as a whole. The freshmen and sophomores deserve all night lights; there is no reason why they shouldn't have them.

Treasurer John Lulewicz must be praised for a most complete and informative report of the Council's operating expenses for the first semester of the 1961-62 school year. All students should consult this report—it should provide an answer for any question concerning allocation of Council funds.

Pumas beat Ball State, Marian; lose to Valpo

Down Ball State in final seconds

By CHARLES J. SCHUTTROW

St. Joseph's Pumas, with six men scoring in double figures, starved off a second-half comeback by Ball State's Cardinals Saturday night at Muncie's Ball gymnasium and captured their first Indiana Collegiate Conference win of the 1961-62 season, 87-85.

The win was the second in succession for the Pumas, who now hold a 1-9 ICC mark and a 7-10 overall record. The loss was the third straight for the Cardinals, now 3-7 in the ICC and 11-8 overall.

After Ball State jumped to a 2-0 lead the Pumas went ahead and maintained a two to six point margin throughout the first half.

St. Joseph's tallied 14 points on lay-ups during the half and held a 44-42 half-time lead.

After Ball State knotted the count at 44-44, the Pumas rallied and raced to a 55-45 advantage.

But the Cardinals bounced back and began whittling down the Pumas' lead. With 14 minutes left, the margin had been shaved to 57-50 and during the next five minutes the Cardinals cut the lead to 63-59.

Ball State caught St. Joseph's at 65-65 with 6:46 remaining. The teams then traded baskets and free throws for the next 6:19 until two free throws by Art Voellinger put the Pumas ahead to stay, 83-81, with just 27 seconds left.

Voellinger's tip-in raised the count to 85-81, and after Ray Satterfield narrowed the margin to 85-83 with two free throws, Voellinger bagged two more charity tosses to ice the game. Ball State sank two free throws with one second left to end the night's scoring.

High scorer of the night was Ball State center Ed Butler with 24 points. Other Cardinals in double figures were John Lee (17), Dan Thurston (12), and Mike Readnour (10).

Puma scorers were led by Jim O'Donnell with 19. He was followed by Russ Marcinek with 16, Mickey Clark with 12, and George Post, Jim Crowley, and Art Voellinger all with 11.

St. Joseph's bagged 31 of 66 field goal tries for a .470 average and 25 of 30 free throws for a .833 mark.

Ball State sank 26 of 54 field

Puma frosh lose to Ball State

Coach Don Merki's freshman basketball squad lost its fourth game of the year Feb. 10 by bowing to the Ball State frosh, 87-62. The freshman have won five games.

Fred Farley led St. Joe scorers with 21 points. Ruben Rodriguez added 15 points, John Render 10, Jim Dockus eight, Luther Howard six, Lonnie Brunswick five and Al Papai two.

The freshmen competed Tuesday with the Valpo frosh.

Two new members have been added to the freshmen squad. They are Jim Wade and William Miller.

goal attempts for a .481 percentage and 33 of 38 free throws for a .868 clip.

On Wednesday, Feb. 7, the Pumas narrowly escaped with their second win of the year over the Marian Knights at Indianapolis, winning 62-59.

The win was the sixth of the year for the Pumas, all non-conference. Marian's record now stands at 4-17; they have lost nine straight.

At halftime the score was tied at 31 all. The Knights pulled away to a 45-40 lead, but the Pumas revived and regained the advantage at 53-51 with just over six minutes remaining.

From that point the teams traded point for point. A last-second Marian attempt to tie the game failed when the Pumas made no attempt to guard the Marian players and a surprised Knight missed a lay up.

St. Joe thus maintained its dominance over Marian, though the road games have been tight the past two years.

Mike Noone of Marian led all scorers with 24 points, with Pete Datillo adding 15. Jim O'Donnell led Puma scorers with 12 points. Russ Marcinek added 11 and Jim Crowley 10.

Valpo wins b-ball, wrestling, dribbling

The Valparaiso Crusaders spent a very profitable day at the expense of the St. Joe Pumas Tuesday. Valpo's varsity wrestlers and basketball squad defeated the Pumas; the St. Joe frosh cagers salvaged one victory.

Valpo's roadrunners also proved victorious; the Crusaders returned the ceremonial basketball to Pumaville in over an hour less than it had taken the Pumas to dribble it to Valpo on Dec. 2. The St. Joe dribblers defeated Valpo 3-0 in a game between halves of the varsity cage tilt. Bill Kennedy scored all three points.

In wrestling the Pumas managed only two forfeit victories. All the other matches were either lost on pins or decisions, Valpo winning 24-10.

The freshmen Puma hoopsters provided the only happy moment of the day by trouncing the Valpo frosh 90-60. The freshmen now own a 6-4 record, including two wins over Valpo.

Valpo's varsity cagers defeated the Pumas by a score of 75-70 to conclude the day's activities. Backed by thunderous support from the packed stands, the Pumas stayed in the game till the final seconds, but foul trouble and inability to control crucial rebounds proved fatal.

The lead see-sawed in the first half, and the first period ended with the score tied 38 all. In the second half the Pumas fought from behind several times, but in the closing minutes could not quite catch up to the high-jumping Crusaders.

The Pumas lost both basketball games and both wrestling matches to Valpo this year. The basketball squad now has a 7-11 record, but only a 1-10 ICC mark. They won three home games this season and lost six; they have three road contests remaining.

The Pumas hit on 27 of 61 field goal tries and 16 of 28 free throws. Valpo connected for 23 fielders in 59 tries, and 29 of 40 charity shots.

George Post and Jim Crowley each scored 19 for the Pumas and Jim O'Donnell added 15. Other scorers were: Mickey Clark, 6; Russ Marcinek, 4; Bill Braunbeck, 3; and Art Voellinger and Jerry Patchman, 2.

Fran Clemens of Valpo led all scorers with 34 points, including 10 of 19 from the field and 14 of 15 free throws.

Bowlers down Loyola squad

The St. Joe bowlers grabbed another victory in their march for the Midwestern Intercollegiate Bowling Conference title by toppling Loyola university Sunday afternoon, 11-0.

Following last week's spectacular shut-out over Notre Dame university, in which the Puma bowlers stopped the Golden Dome in all five games and set a team series record of 5035, the high-flying St. Joe team repeated its record breaking streak against Loyola with a team series of 5081.

The Loyola match, sixth of the Pumas 10 match schedule, was played at Maple Lanes. Steve Jupinka led the St. Joe squad with a 1135 series for five games. Pat DelCotto rolled 1032, followed by Harry Hansen, 995, Rich Hanson, 969, and Wally Nedza, 951.

The Pumas next match is on March 4, when they will meet I.I.T. The next home encounter will be with Valparaiso on Mar. 18.

The conference tournament will be played at Loyola on May 13. The Pumas hope to repeat last years showing and come away champions for the second straight season. Wins at I.I.T., Valparaiso, DePaul and Notre Dame in future weeks will clinch the conference crown for the St. Joe bowlers.

Pumas to finish season on road

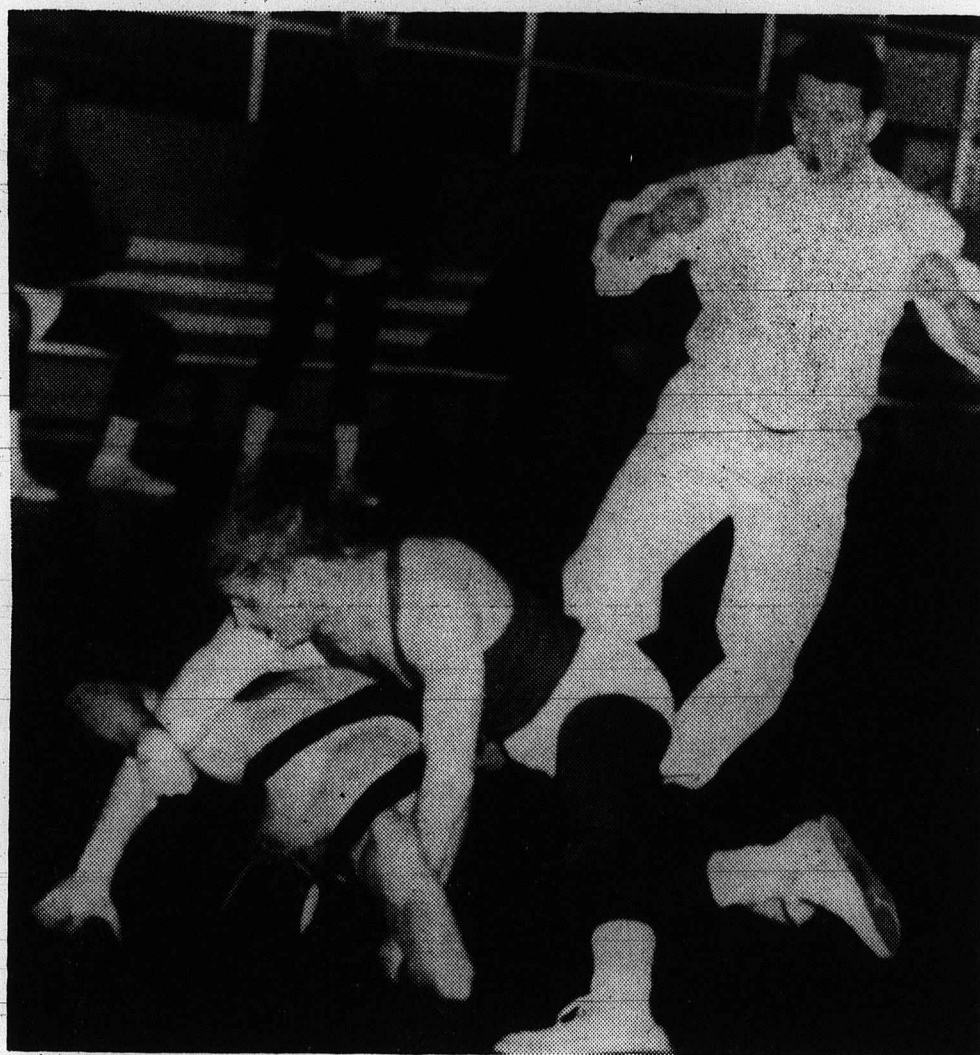

Following Tuesday's game with Valpo, the Puma basketball squad will complete its schedule with three road games.

On Saturday, Feb. 17, the Pumas will complete their ICC schedule by facing Evansville Purple Aces in Evansville. The Aces were 6-3 in the ICC ratings this week, one game behind leading Butler. They defeated the Pumas here Feb. 1 by a 90-80 score after trailing by 12 at halftime.

Probable starters for the Aces of coach Arad McCutchan will be guards Marv Pruett and Jim Smith, forwards Paul Bullard and Harold Briley and center Marty Herthel. These men

DePauw Tigers take mat meet

Last Saturday, Feb. 10, the DePauw Tiger wrestlers defeated the St. Joe grapplers by a 27-3 score. Heavyweight Joe Gugliotta decisioned his man for the lone Puma victory.

Coach Dwyer was somewhat disappointed with the team's performance. He felt that while his wrestlers were quite aggressive, too many of them lost points by making simple fundamental mistakes due to mental lapses. Only two Pumas were pinned.

They were John Zid, 123 lbs., late in the first period, and Terry Isselhard, 177 lbs., late in the third period.

St. Joe men losing on points were George Foss at 130, Jim Crook at 137, Tom Blake at 147 and Ken Mrozek at 167. Mitch Kaminski, 157 pounder, lost by default when an aggravation of

Bennett Celts rolling along

By JIM TRAINOR

Can the Bennett Celts be stopped? This seems to be the prevailing question throughout the intramural league. As of today, they appear to be perhaps the best basketball team ever to compete in I.M. basketball. Yes, even better than the recently departed Flyers, winners of the school championship for the last two years.

Four more victims have been added to their list of "push-overs."

JIM TRAINOR

In their first four games, the closest the opposition approached the Celts was by 29 points. However, the Halas Haphazards and the Bennett Bad Guys have broken that record since then. The Haphazards managed to come within 27 points in losing 58-31.

The Bad Guys came even closer in losing 12-3. However, the game was played under conditions similar to throwing a marble into a coke cup as the undersized rims which are used by the Pumas during practice were not replaced by the regulation rims after a Puma practice.

The last time this column appeared, eight I.M. teams were undefeated. I predicted that the number would be reduced by the next time the column would appear. The number of undefeated teams now stands at five. In the upperclass league, the Bennett Celts and Gallagher Gaelics are sporting unblemished 8-0 records, and the Halas Bears are 7-0. Halas, however, has yet to play one of the top teams.

In the Frosh league, the East Seifert Shepherds and the Gaspar Vigilantes are both undefeated in ten games. I predict that the Gallagher Gaelics, as well as the Halas Bears will be the next teams to taste defeat.

The Noll Guzzlers were upended for the first time by the Gallagher 69'ers, 38-31. The Guzzlers still insist, however, that they will knock off the Celts.

The Gallagher Untouchables were edged out by the Whitehouse Wazoos 43-42 for their first loss of the season. The Untouchables have been picked by many to win Division A of the upperclass league and perhaps, even be the team to beat the Celts in the tourney.

After winning their first seven games, the West Seifert Patricians were knocked from the undefeated ranks. As a matter of fact, since then they have been playing at a 1-3 clip.

The recently completed chess tournament was won by Carl Buckner of Gaspar. The tournament was well-handled by the I.M. department and proved to be a success.

The I.M. wrestling tournament began last Friday and will continue through this week. Thus far, competition has been rough and there have been some very fine matches.

Mike Gatton of the I.M. office has announced that there are 68 entries for the Ping Pong tournament. He also announced that the bridge tournament will begin as soon as the ping pong tourney is completed. Perhaps it will prove as interesting as did the pinochle tourney. Start warming up, bridge players.

along with lanky sub Ed Zausch, led the second half charge which defeated the Pumas here.

The following night, Feb. 18, the Pumas will be in Louisville, Ky. to face the Knights of Bellarmine college, coached by Alex Groza.

As of Jan. 30 the Knights had won 6 and lost 10. Losses were to such teams as Notre Dame, Xavier, St. Bonaventure, Niagara and Kentucky Wesleyan.

Starting for Bellarmine will probably be Larry Duddy and Judge Mosley at guards, Dick Carr and Don Kalmey at forwards and Ben Monhollen at center. All but Monhollen are lettermen.

The Knights split two games with the Pumas last year. In each case the home team won by three points.

A preview of Wabash will appear in the next issue of Stuff.

The Pumas face their final ICC action with only a mathematical chance to avoid undisputed occupancy of the cellar. Any St. Joe loss or Ball State win will leave the Pumas all alone in the basement.

As a result of last week's loss to Valpo, the Butler Bulldogs find themselves leading the ICC by only one game with three conference games yet to play. Following are the ICC standings as of Tuesday morning, Feb. 13.

	W	L	Pct.
Butler	7	2	.778
Evansville	6	3	.667
DePauw	6	3	.667
Indiana State	6	4	.600
Valparaiso	4	5	.444
Ball State	3	7	.300
St. Joseph's	1	9	.100

Summer job listings at placement office

The summer employment directory announced in the last issue of Stuff is available in the Placement office. It is not necessary for students to pay $3 for their own copies. Mrs. Richard Scharf has the directory available to any student desiring to inspect it.

Chi club to honor best cager

The Chicago club will award a trophy at the end of the season to the best all-around basketball player of the year. The Fr. Fehrenbacher Award, as it is called, is given in remembrance of the late Fr. Fred Fehrenbacher, C.P.P.S., one time athletic director, who did much to further sports at St. Joe.

The Club has agreed to help the Chicago Parents Club in their current raffle drive. The drawing for the prizes, liquor baskets, will be held on February 23.

Plans are being made for an Easter dance, to be held on Apr. 23, Easter Monday, at the American Legion hall in Cicero, Ill. A free mid-semester dance for members only was held in the same hall on Jan. 26. The attendance numbered 220 couples.

The Chicago club donated a $100 Christmas gift to Fr. Campagna's Hoosier Boys Town at Schererville, Ind.

Members received their Chicago club blazers at a reduced rate toward the end of last semester. A directory of members was also printed which lists both campus and home addresses.

Fr. Kaiser is parish historian

A history of Holy Trinity parish in Gary, Ind. has been published by the Rev. Edwin G. Kaiser, C.P.P.S., professor of religion at St. Joseph's college. The book, entitled The Story of Holy Trinity Parish (Slovak), Gary, Indiana, was written in honor of the 50th anniversary of the parish.

Fr. Kaiser, a noted author and translator of articles and books in theology, has taught at St. Joseph's 18 years. His most recent works include a text, Sacred Doctrine—Introduction to Theology and a translation of the first of three volumes of the The Law of Christ, written in German by the Rev. Bernard Haering, C.S.S.R. an old leg injury forced his withdrawal from a tie match.

Although the meet did not meet Coach Dwyer's expectations, he was not too disappointed, but reasoned that the match was simply a bad day for the Pumas.

The wrestlers took on Valpo

Tuesday afternoon. Saturday the will travel to the Millikin Tournament, and the freshman squad, coached by Jim Delaney and Leo Garibay, will participate in the ICC freshman meet.

On Feb. 23-24 the Puma grapplers will take part in the ICC meet at DePauw. If they do well they will advance to the Little State meet on March 2-3.
